

Fighting Pandemics in a Life of Faith: Interdisciplinary Approaches to Public Health

Start time	Finish time	Speaker	Presentation
09:30	10:00		Introduction
10:00	10:30	Adina Bezerita	The Relevance of Syncretistic Approaches in Ancient Philosophy and Science and Religion
10:30	11:00		BREAK
11:00	11:30	Shaun Henson	For Queen, Country, and Covid-19: The Anglican Response to the Global Pandemic
11:30	12:00	Susan Kerr	Freedom of Religion or Belief and the COVID-19 Pandemic
12:00	12:30	Catalin Raiu	From Politics to Policy. Freedom of Religion of Belief during the Pandemic in Romania
12:30	13:30		LUNCH BREAK
13:30	14:00	David Jones	Catholic Communities during the COVID-19 Pandemic
14:00	14:30	Mahan Ghafari	COVID-19 in Iran: Role of Religious Communities in Public Health Interventions
14:30	15:00	Nigel Pearson	Engaging Faith Communities in Public Health Messaging in Response to COVID-19: Lessons from DRC
15:00	15:30		BREAK
15:30	16:00	Stefan Dascalu	Engaging Faith-based Communities during COVID-19 in Romania
16:00	16:30	Romanian Orthodox Church Delegation	The Romanian Orthodox Church during the COVID-19 Pandemic
16:30	17:00	Michael Bonsall	Biosecurity, Pandemic Preparedness and Modelling COVID: Engaging with Stakeholders
17:00	17:15		Concluding Statements
17:15	18:00		Post-conference Discussions (Tea & Coffee) with Audience and Speakers

Date: Friday, 25 March 2022

Venue: Large Lecture Theatre, Mathematical Institute, University of Oxford